Please give details of who will benefit from this grant.
What will the grant money be used for?
Is this an ongoing need or is it for a set period of time? Please give details.
When are you planning to spend the money?
We anticipate that you will spend the money within 3 months of the date given above. How will you be able to demonstrate this to us?
Do you give us permission to contact you for feedback about this within this timeframe? How can we contact you about this?

Financial Information

How much money do you need in total for the activity you are applying for a grant for?
How much have you already raised?
Have you applied elsewhere for a grant? If so: • Who have you applied to? • How much have you asked for? • When will you know the outcome?

Criteria

Frome Activities and Sports Trust (FAST) has four criteria which organisations need to satisfy in order to have their application considered:

- You are a voluntary organisation run by unpaid volunteers
- You are open to all and are not selective in your membership
- You offer individuals/groups the opportunity to take part in a sport or activity where access to such an opportunity may otherwise be restricted
- The sport or activity you offer takes place within the BA11 postcode

Please tell us about your sport/activity and how it meets these four criteria (300 words maximum)

We would also like to know more about who you are working with.

How many people will this grant benefit and how?
How many people are involved in decision-making and ownership of this application?
What are their roles in the organisation?
Will a positive result from this application encourage more Frome residents to get involved in your sport/activity? If so, how?
Are you partnering with other Frome groups and if not, could you consider doing so?
How will you know that you have achieved what you set out to as stated in this application?
How will you measure that achievement?
Will your activity/sport continue after this grant is spent? If so, how will it be funded?
